Five Resign Posts From City School; Roberts To Okla.

BOARD NAMES 3 To BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

The Cameron School Board Friday night accepted the resignations of five faculty and maintenance personnel.

They are head coach John Roberts, Basketball Coach Joe Davis Mrs. John Roberts, speech therapist, Mrs. Fred Carroll, who is moving to Bryan and James Hill, a maintenance supervisor, who has joined the Cameron Police Dept.

The board also announced the appointment of the District Equalization Board. On the three man board will be Roy Law, Bill Hornung and Sam Tindall, all of Cameron.

And the board revised the policy on transfer students coming into the Cameron Independent School District for the first year. Seniors are exempt, but all others will have to pay $75 per year per student next fall.

GOING TO OKLAHOMA

Roberts submitted his letter of resignation to the board to accept a position with the Stillwater, Okla. school as an assistant football and head track coach.

The school has about 800 students and is the same as a large 3A school in Texas. He said that the opportunity was one he could not pass up. He will be under his former high school coach, Jim Harris. Harris has just moved up after 14 years to the head coaching spot. The former head coach is now at Oklahoma State.

Roberts told The Herald that the job was one that he was sure that he would enjoy and expressed his appreciation to the people of Cameron for the opportunity to work with their boys and athletic program.

Davis will go to Mesquite High School, a 4A school near Dallas. He will be the head basketball coach and an end coach in football. His resignation will be effective at the end of the school year as will Roberts.

Davis' letter for resignation said in part, "I offer it to pursue an opportunity to improve myself in the coaching profession at a larger high school which will offer a better chance to reach my potential in the coaching profession."

Davis will have three junior high schools coming into the Mesquite school. He has eight boys that are 6'3" or over. The school is building a new, air - conditioned gym for the 1964 season.

Roberts resignation gave the school its fourth head coach to leave in six years.

Bloodmobile Due Visit Here Friday

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit Cameron Friday from 12 noon to 6 p. m. at the Presbyterian Church Basement.

This area fell short of their quota on the last visit of the Bloodmobile and if this continues to happen, the community will lose the services of the Red Cross Blood Bank.

Anyone in average good health between the ages of 18 and 60 can donate blood and may donate no more than every 8 weeks or up to five times a year. A brief physical examination is given each donor by a registered nurse under the direction of a physician. A doctor is always present during a blood operation and the actual drawing of blood is done by a licensed Red Cross nurse.

The Red Cross Blood Bank will replace blood used by the residents of the region whenever they are hospitalized and anyone receiving blood from this region does not have to be a donor in order to receive blood.

This is a big program and requires the support of many. The quota for North Milam County is 76 pints.

Mrs. Wells Heads Area Technologists; 'Week' Proclaimed

Mrs. Melba Wells has been installed president of the 12th district of the Texas Society of Medical Technologists on the eve of Medical Technology Week, proclaimed May 5-11 by Gov. John Connally.

Mrs. Wells, former technologist at Baylor University College of Medicine, took office two weeks ago at the Central Texas clinic in Waco during the District's last business meeting of the year. She succeeds Miss Clarence Sontag of Marlin.

Other officers are: Mrs. Tennie Bryson of Temple, president-elect; Mrs. Lillian Johnston, Waco, secretary; and Mrs. Dale Pierson, Lott, treasurer.

The new officers and Mrs. Wells will attend the 31st annual meeting of the Society May 9-11 at the Commodore Perry Hotel in Austin. Gov. Connally's proclamation acknowledges the important work of the medical technologist," Mrs. Wells told The Herald.

She pointed out that medical technology is hospital laboratory work which includes testing in hematology, chemistry, blood bank, bacteriology, serology, mycology and parasitology.

Seven thousand American hospitals employ about 15,000 qualified technologists, defined byMrs. Wells as "a person trained for three years and one year intership in processing the numerous tests and cultures already mentioned, working with pathologists and other doctors tracking down disease."

She noted that Sister Aloyisius, of St. Edward Hospital, is the only other registered technologist in Cameron, but that Mrs. Pierson, of Lott, is a member of MT (ASCP.) An associate member is Mrs. Mary Matula.

Mrs. Wells has given lectures to the Yoe High School Student Nurses Club and has another scheduled before school is out.

Mrs. Wells emphasized that the needs are growing for administrative positions in laboratory management and loboratory equipment.

'Campaign' Funds Acknowledged By Cong. W. R. Poage

A $2,800 campaign fund kept in a Waco bank by congressman W. R. "Bob "Poage, 11th District represetative, has stirred newspaper comment from Washington to his hometown Waco.

The veteran Congressman, vice-chairman of the House agriculture committee, acknowledged to Washington reporters that he had received campaign contributions during the fall of 1962 when he ran unopposed for re-election.

He told The Waco - News - Tribune he accepted the contributions in the event a Republican filed against him "up to within 30 days of the election." When a Republican opponent did not appear Cong-Poage said he planned to keep the $2,800 in funds for a future campaign.

Contributions acknowledged were $2,500 from William Louvia, Sr., owner of Imperial Sugar Co. in Sugarland, Texas. (A Washington newspaper story listed $1,500 from Louvia, and $1,000 from Irving Hoff, a Washington sugar lobbyist, sent to Louvia, and $100 each from three Indiana executives of Central Soya Co., Inc. of Fort Wayne, including Harold McMillen, Wilbert E. Huge and J. L. Krider.

Poage told reporters he had turned down a $300 contribution offered by a lobbyist, John O'Donnell, under investigation by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, according to The Waco News-Tribune.

The Congressman said he accepted the contribution offer from Louvia in Houston while there in 1962 making a speech.

And the $300 from the Indiana men was given, Poage told reporters, after several days of agriculture hearing presided over by the Central Texas congressman. He said they told him they would like like him stay in Congress because they admired his type of thinking

The $2,800 fund is on deposit in a Waco bank. Cong. Poage said it was actually received by Carlton Smith, his campaign manager.

Cong. Poage also said he had not accepted any campaign funds in 1969, The Waco News-Tribune said.

Poage told Washington reporters: "You know Texas," he said. "You never know when a Republican is going to spring up. I was ready for any kind of last minute fight."

By FML

The resignation of Yoe High School's two young coaches has dramatized the problems of modern-day discipline.

Perhaps overzealous, but nevertheless sincere, young headcoach John Roberts lost a number of prospective grid players this spring because of objections to strenuous exercise. This in part, precipitated his and Davis' resignation. Both are going to bigger high school jobs.

But there is bound to be more to it than that.

Cameron has had a large turnover, like other schools, of coaching staff in the past five years. Being a smaller high school with limited athletic budget has something to do with it, but there is still something else.

104 - 104 - 104

Adults have observed a restlessness in the youngsters of today in tune, with having one's own car or easy access to the family car.

Since World War II particularly, the developments of popularity has been akin to having a "four - wheel personality" which is a formidable adversary to physical and mental discipline.

The youngsters of Cameron are no different.

Restlessness cannot explain away problem and necessity of recognizing authority at home and at school. Quite often the reason Junior wants his own wheels is because Dad and Mom are always on theirs, going here and there. It is not only Junior's restlessness. It is more his loneliness.

This country has become a "permissive society", which is in direct conflict with what successful coaches, teachers, parents, businessmen and just about everybody can finally afford.

Restraint has become a difficult thing for parents to maintain, because they have less restraint.

It would be a mistake, 104 believes, for a return to the "starch and ramrod" of the Victorian era. But it would be good to find a balance of discipline to supplant the popular attempts at "buddy" systems of teaching, raising and helping young people.

The American education system has brought this development along since the days of the educator - philosopher Dewey. But unless youngsters have exceptional home training and basic discipline of family and church, it produces a mediocre result.

Competition, whether physical or mental, is discipline. We can have understanding without mish - mash, and we can perform to a standard without the need for rebellion.

DRIVE ROLLS INTO 2ND WEEK

Interest Keen In Milam

A Campaign Report

The Herald's subscription drive, going into its second full week, has sent 17 workers throughout Cameron, Milam communities and rural areas and has gained a wide reception of interest.

A kick - off meeting last Thursday at Texan Cafe brought together 12 of The Herald's workers, sales of subscriptions started minutes after the meeting ended. All 17 are now working.

A total of $3,300 on cash prizes the top one a cool $1,000, are to be awarded exactly four weeks from tomorrow (May 30).

It seems that everyone in the area already has selected a favorite contestant and they are calling them by phone with subscriptions or bringing them to The Herald office. Thus casting votes for their favorite.

INTEREST WIDESPREAD

Progress of the campaign and the possibility of who is leading among the 17 workers is being widely discussed in Cameron Buckholts, Burlington, Rogers, Rosebud, Rockdale, Thorndale, Milano, Gause and throughout the rural areas.

Interest is expected to increase when the first standing is published next week.

During he first week, this campaign has received wonderful response, causing renewed pride in The Herald's staff who appreciate the fine reception given to contestants. Without doubt, Herald circulation is growing stronger each day.

Contestants, named in the box below, will continue to work hard for the ten $25 bonus prizes to be awarded next Monday night. All 17 are eligible to win the prizes, awarded on the basis of top ten contestants's performances in the first 10 days.

Other prize awards are spaced further ahead in the campaign, but over - riding interest is in the final award of the seven big capital prizes May 31.

One reason for the fine reception given the campaign and the enrolled workers is that subscribers, both new and old, have been remembered and are being offered a chance to profit from the campaign.

BARGAIN RATES

For the duration of the five-week campaign, subscription prices have actually been reduced below the present subscription prices. Savings of as much as $6 on a five-year subscription are offered to all subscribers.

The savings are offered in spite of increased postage rates and future increase next year.

Starting June 1, subscriptions prices will be advanced to cover the postage increase. But until this campaign ends, you can subscribe or renew at bargain prices.

There are three ways to subscribe or renew subscriptions.

ONE — Phone a contestant and ask him or her to call for your subscription;

TWO — Give your subscription to a contestant when he or she calls at your home or place of business;

THREE — Bring or mail it to The Herald office and ask that the votes be credited to your favorite.

The Herald's goal in his campaign is 1,000 brand new subscribers. Confident that this goal will be met, Milam County's oldest newspaper then would have the greatest coverage in its 104 year history of service.

County Agent's Notes

Screwworm In Milam Reported

By J. D. Moore
Milam County Agent

Roy W. Setzer, Jr., whose cattle are located 3 miles west of Gause, sent in a positive screwworm case on April 22.

Inspectors were on the job immediately to see that affected cattle are sprayed, to determine the source of infection and make plans for an immediate fly drop within the area to prevent further build-up.

Eradication officials are able to hold down the screwworm fly population if stockmen will carefully check their cattle at least twice a week, carry out a spray program and report immediate cases of screwworm found.

To show the effectiveness of the program, during early April, 59 cases of true screwworm cases were found and reported. This number went up to 80 then 114 and by the last of April the count was back down to 59, according to Marvin Bridges, program official. The success of this program will depend largely upon the cooperation of stockmen.

BRUCELLOSIS SINGERS STILL COMING IN

Stockmen are urged to sign and return the brucellosis petitions received through the mail from John S. Batte, chairman of the Milam County Livestock Improvement Association. More than 900 stockmen have signed and some 1014 signatures are needed in order to qualify Milam County for a clean up program.

With the increase in livestock numbers, more attention should be centered on health programs relating to livestock in Milam County.

COUNTY PROGRAM

Committees are busy compiling information on the various sections that will be used to determine recommendatons for a county program to strengthen the economy and improve living conditions in Milam County.

All organizations and business concerns are urged to lend their support for a broader understanding of the needs of the county.

Milam ASCS Report

Just why "small farm" wheat ooperators are being asked ro register at the ASCS County Office more than 7 days in advance of the 1964 wheat program referendum was clarified today by Alva E. Sanders, office manager of the Milam County Agricultural, Stabilization and Conservation Service.

"Small farms" are those with wheat allotments of less than 15 acres. All growers on such a farm will be eligible to vote in the May 21 referendum if the operator of the farm indicates in advance an intention to participate in the program as an allotment grower if the program is approved. This choice has to be made at the county office by May 13.

According to Sanders, voter eligibility for the 1964 wheat referendum is established by law, much the same way as State law provides that voters be legal residents of the state. Subject to State laws, and registered to vote at a prescribed time in advance of the election.

No one is being told how to vote, Sanders emphasized. The referendum ballot is secret, and the producer does not have to declare in advance how he will vote on the program. The small -farm operator – like other wheat growers– may vote "yes" or "no" as he chooses.

What the small farm wheat operator indicates on the form MO-24, which he flies at the county office by May 13, is that, if marketing quotas are approved, he wants his farm to be eligible for wheat price support, for marketing certificates, and for acreage diversion payments. He is aware that these various parts of the wheat program will be available to growers who keep with in their acreage allotments and meet other program provisions. The "small grower" is merely "choosing to participate as an allotment grower" in advance of the vote.

COMMUNITY IMPROVEMENT

Three Milam County communities participating in the Texas Community Improvement Program were visited and judged by the district judging committee on Thursday April 25. The communities judged were Branchville, Gause and Griffin Chapel. These communities were judged based on the progress that they made in a twelve month period in competition with communities in Jefferson, Grimes and Lee Counties. The winning communities will be announced in the very near future.

SAVE THAT INSTRUCTION BOOK

Here's a suggestion from Henry O'Neal, Extension Agricultural Engineer at Texas A & M College, that can save you valuable time and possible repair bills on your farm equipment.

The instruction books that come with the tractor and other farm equipment can be a valuable tool to lengthen the life of the machine. They also help prevent break - downs and are useful in reconditioning equipment.

So, ONeal's suggestion is to store these instruction books in a safe place where they will be handy when you need to refer to them. He also suggests that you use these books to become more familiar with the machines and the parts you may need to keep them operating properly.

TOTAL PERFORMANCE:

IF YOU KNEW
WHAT HE KNOWS...YOU'D BE DRIVING THE 1963 TOTAL PERFORMANCE FORD

Ford is traditionally the nation's Number One police car. The reason: Total Performance!

When it comes to cars the police don't take chances. Put yourself in a State Trooper's shoes. Every day you must patrol hundreds of miles in your cruiser. Mileage and time grind into a man and his machine, but when the bell rings you've got to be ready. Chase. Turn. Corner. Quick stop. You've got to be able to do it all if you're going to do your job.

Listen to a trooper list the reasons why he prefers a Ford and you realize how difficult it is for any car to measure up to his standards. The car must be strong . . . it has to stand up to big mileage. It must be silent . . . when you practically live in a car a rattle can sound like a kettle drum. It must be swift . . . powerful enough to catch any car on the road. It must be sure . . . dependable even in the face of the unexpected. Strong. Silent. Swift. Sure. A four-word outline of total performance. The police demand it. That is why they choose the total performance Ford. Why should you settle for anything less?

Whatever your special demands and needs, the total performance Ford is the car most likely to satisfy you all the way down the line. You can prove this for yourself.

First, look at Ford's astounding record in open competition this year in the grueling Daytona, Riverside and Atlanta 500's, and in the demanding Pure Oil Performance Trials. Only a car with total performance could roll up so many impressive wins.

Second, before you buy any new car, test-drive the solid, silent Super Torque Ford. If you haven't driven one lately, you can't really know what a new Ford is like. Make this important discovery—if it's built by Ford, it's built for performance . . . total performance.

Whee! No More Bills!

Perhaps, while we may feel a sense of relief and satisfaction in having all bills paid, not mnay of us are prone to express our joy in quiet as demonstrative a fashion. However, if you would see joy and emotion at its peak you need go no farther than the nearest high school where some sporting event is in progress and there watch the cheering section. On the other hand the more abiding kind of joy is inward and less demonstrative.

The lack of joy is a problem today for many people, young and old. Attending church with regularity and entering whole heartedly into its activities will, more often than not, help solve that problem. The Church teaches the ways of living a life filled with joy. What are they? Dispel hate; practice love. Regard people not with disdain or aversion; start liking them. Do no wrong. Dissipate fear. Think not of yourself but do for others. Then after you know these things the Church puts powerful meaning into the almost miraculous scriptural passage: "If ye KNOW these things, HAPPY are ye if ye DO them."

"Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ" I Corinthians 3:11.

Doskocil To Attend WTSU

Amos Doskocil, Yoe fleet halfback, has signed to attend West Texas State University in Canyon, according to Yoe Head Coach John Roberts.

Doskocil signed Sunday noon after a visit to the University and meeting Coach Joe Kerbel. Roberts accompanied him to the University for the visit. This visit ended Kerbel's efforts to get the Yoeman to his school.

The Herald found him in the Agricultural Building welding some angle iron for one of his projects. He told the Herald that he was looking forward to going.

"I think the school is very good and the climate is great," Doskocil said.

He will major in agriculture.

Roberts told the Herald "I think Amos is very deserving of the opportunity and he will be a fine asset to their ball club. I think he is a fine football player."

Doskocil was the leading ball carrier for the Yoemen as he carried 135 times for a 4.8 yard average. He also caught three passes for 46 yards.

He returned 20 kickoffs for 398 yards and intercepted one pass for a 40 yard run back.

Doskocil was named All-District both his junior and senior years as he led the Yoemen. He was named to the Super Cen-Tex team by a Waco newspaper and to the All - Cen - Tex team by Dub King, area sportscaster.

He won the 100 and 220 yard dashes in the district tract meet and was a regional finalist.

Doskocil's hard running drew praises from everyone as the relatively little man would hit harder than most big men.

Rockdale's backfield coach, Eddie Cook, said that Doskocil hit harder than anyone they had played last year. He said that Doskocil was even better than Robert Leech, the all - stater from Jacksboro.

West Texas State has just been given University status by the present legislature, they won the Sun Bowl title last year and had a 9-2 record including the bowl game.

The 52 year old school is the home of nationally known halfbacks "Pistol Pete" Pedro and Jerry Logan. Logan graduated this year and was the top college scorer in the nation. He was the fourth round draft choict of the Balimore Colts. Three other WTSU players entered into pro ball this year.

Doskocil will receive a full four year scholarship to the University.

Why Is A Mass Equalization Appraisal Survey Needed?

Many years ago, when most of our present tax laws were enacted, such laws provided for equitable assessments of property. Equalization in those days was comparatively easy because such property owner of a community knew his fellow citizen so well that he knew now much land he owned, the cost of the buildings thereon, the kind and number of livestock, the value of stocks of merchandise in the few stores and in general the approximate worth of his neighbor.

Such widespread knowledge of the affairs in a community made property assessments relatively simple. In this era only a few hundred assessments were made and the sole function of the Board of Equalization was to arbitrate disputes between the Tax Assessor and individual taxpayers. At that time, of course, the knowledge of the three members of the Board of Equalization was more than sufficient.

However, today our method of living has changed to such an extent that many time honored customs have become inadequate to meet present day needs. The population increase, the rapid swing from individual agricultural land use to mechanized agricultural land use, the division of property into small parts (some of which have a high present value), the growth of complex industrial plants, the change from rural habitation to urban, the tremendous increase in the dollar value of everything we own,buy or sell, all these have burdened a tax system devised in the 18 hundreds to the point of breakdown.

This has resulted in the present system of assessing whereby a taxpayer renders his property for any amount he desires. These voluntary assessments become final unless the Tax Assessor or the Board of Equalization have personal knowledge concerning the value of the property.

It is obvious that the Tax Assessor with, in many instances, no help could not properly value and assess each property now would it be possible for the members of the Board of Equalization to examine all of these properties in the limited time alowled them.

Most taxpayers know these things, therefore some of them have been accustomed to assessing their property as low as possible in order that they will not be assessed higher than others. Some other taxpayers have conscientiously assessed their property much higher than others realizing the need to provide funds for the school who are the sole recipients of funds from the ad valorem taxes. All of these things overtheyears have resulted in property being assessed from one per cent to one hundred per cent of its true value and inequities existing from the top to the bottom of the tax rolls. The law that taxes shall be equal and uniform is of prime importance to everyone.

Your local School Board has employeed us to make a complete and detail revaluation of all properties within these taxing jurisdictions for the purpose of EQUALIZING THE VALUES.

Shortly our men will be coming to your homes to secure the information that will put this equalization into effect.

We earnestly solicit your cooperation.

Respectively,

SOUTHWESTERN APPRAISAL CO.

For Summer Baseball

Wilson Reelected; Managers Named

The Cameron Baseball program has started to organize and it looks like another growing season for the league according to Bassel Wilson, who was re - elected as president of the organization last Friday.

The group also elected Bubba Maddox as secretary treasurer.

"We are going to have a real active league this year and we still need more men to work with these kids this summer," Wilson said.

He also told the Herald that there would be no games played on Wednesday nights because of the Prayer Meetings in the churches. And he emphasized that no teams would be permitted to play games on Sunday.

The Minor League games will begin at 7 p. m. and the Little League games will begin sharply at 8:30 p. m. It is expected that there will be five Little League Teams at least. Wilson also said that there were plans to have at least two or more Pony League teams.

He said that the association also received an invitation to play in the Central Texas Association and this is for players from 16 to 60.

Some of the men that will be working with the teams this year are:

Loyd Rider, James nderle, Adrian Richter, Ollie Chamberlain, William Watkins, Terry Hardwick Louis Trdy, Ben Zabjicek, Jesse Kirk and Bob Ellett.

Also Nubby Moore, LaVert McKinney, Bubba Maddox, Carl Weems, August Horelica, Robert Eichenhorst, Tommy Kirk, Tom Schigut and Julian Terry.

Also Mike Mikula, Rev. Eugene Strickland, Henry Ivey, Buck Wilkerson, Tommy Sanders, David Barkemeyer and Raymond Green.

Wilson said if any other men wished to take part they should contact him.

By James Hollas

The Cameron Yoemen athletic program suffered another blow this week when Head Coach John Roberts and Basketball Coach Joe Davis submitted letters of resignation to the school board.

This made Roberts the fourth head coach in six years to resign from the school system.

The Yoemen have had at least 15 coaches in the last six years. Some of the boys have played under as many as three different head coaches.

With each coach having slightly different approacres to the game the boys must learn how to play different each time that a new head coach appears on the scene.

It is small wonder that the Yoemen have not been able to win their share of the ball games. No coach has been able to set up his program and get it going.

The landslide of coaches started when Leo Jackson went to Irving in 1957. Bill Krueger was hired by San Marcos High School and W. J. Michalka also left to another school

Jim Speer was moved up to head coach and Murphy Webster was rehired as an assistant. Max Treadwell and Harrison McLarran were also hired.

Webster left in 1959 and was replaced by Jerry Hopkins for the 1959 - 60 season.

Then another shake - up took place and Speer, Treadwell and Hopkins all left the school.

Bill Bates was hired as head coach and Jack Larrimore, Wallace Johnson and McLerran were under him.

In 1961 McLerran went into teaching alone and was replaced by former Yoe star, Jimmy Rettig. Johnson left and was replaced by Ray Stevens.

Then Bates left coaching and went into business. The entire staff resigned in hopes that the new head coach could come in and choose his new assistants to put the athleic program back on its feet.

Ray Sevens accepted a position as Ada Henderson principal.

Roberts was hired as head coach and selected his assistants to help him. He called on C. T. Everett.

But now Roberts has accepted a coaching job at Stillwater, Okla. and Joe Davis will be going to 4A Mesquite as head basketball coach.

And so another crew of coaches has left and the Yoemen will be playing under a new set up next year.

Yoe Band Places First

The Yoe High School band entered the Region III, UIL, band contests in Marlin Saturday. The two events held in this contest were concert playing in State contest s.

The Yoe High band again made the top rating of First Division in the Class AA bands. This top rating was made in both concert playing and sight - reading.

The local band enjoys a distinction not held by any other Central Texas band. Since the year 1937 the Yoe High band has made nothing but the First ivision rating in concert playing in Statecontest s. This long stretch of First is probably not matched in the entire state, Francis Cox, director of the band told The Herald.

The recent contest was judged by this corps of judges: Dr. James Jacobsen, director of the Texas Christian University band; Mr. Gene Stuchbery, director of the Pasadena High School bands; Dr. Frank Phillips, director of the McCallum High School band of Austin and Irving Dreibrodt, director of the Southern Methodist University Mustang band.

Some interesting comments taken directly from the judging sheets turned in by the judges were: - "Played very carefully and with lots of musicianship." "A great band as usual; balance and intonation are very fine." "This band is very carefully trained; good wishes to the boys and girls of this band for a job well done."

"This band as usual is excellent and projects a fine teaching job in every respect." - "Your band makes an excellent stage appearance." "This band is an exceptional organization; your students are receiving highly superior training." "Your school and community has every hight to be very proud of you players and your director."

A Moscow Reception.....

Fidel Castro visited Moscow this week, receiving a big reception from Khrushchev and a 21-gun salute.

It was a reception befitting the Castro's status in the Red World of politics. Thousands of Muscovites waved.

But Castro was glum, pointing to the fact that the Soviet Union had not made the Cuban revolution a success.

He was correct for what he said. But it is Russia and more pointedly Red China that now sustain the Revolution in Cuba. Without aid from one and then the other, Castro would be out of power.

He did credit the original Russian Revolution for giving a certain inspiration for its Cuban counterpart.

Excitement, therefore, did not overwhelm Castro. But anything would be better than the reception in the Western Hemisphere, as far as Castro is concerned.

It would appear that he is in Russia to mend some broken fences and perhaps some face. In particular, he is probably seeking some additional financial and military aid.

THE OLD PHILOSOPHER

Philosopher Hopes Rule Against Betting On Self Won't Be Applied To Farmers

Dear editar:

As I understand it, some professional football players have been caught betting on football games they've played in themselves and as a result have been suspended. They can't play for at least a year, maybe longer. It's just against the rules to bet on yourself.

Now at first glance this doesn't seem too important as far as me and my Johnson grass farm are concerned, but then I got to thinking.

What if somebody in Washington for example comes out with a rule against betting on yourself in farming there'd be more suspended farmers than you could count.

First, when a farmer starts a new year, he bets on the weather's being normal, whereas I have never seen a normal weather year over once or twice in my lifetime.

The odds against dry weather when you want it, rain when you want it, the right temperature when you want it are so great that most farmers are incapable of carrying a bet alone on the spot and usually invite a banker to pitch in with them.

Then of course there's the matter of insects and get a crop to market, the odds against the price being what you want it to be are so great the favorable ones come up only a time or two a decade, and it sometimes takes a war to swing that.

In fact, looking the thing over, I sometimes figure us farmers would be smarter and come out a lot better if we bet against ourselves, but it's hard to get any bets of that sort.

They can maybe enforce a rule against betting on yourself in football, but if they apply it to farming, they'll wreck it.

Yours faithfully,

J. A.

Loan Shark Law Passes House

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — If the 58th Legislature's final version of aolanhsark ture's final version of a loan shark law is that which passed the House folks who do business with the money men still would pay charges up to 500 per cent on the smaliest, short - term loans.

Small - small loans -- those under $100 -- would be regulated by an amendment to Corpus Christi Sen. Bruce Reagan's bill which provides that on loans from $19 to $35, the lender could collect a flat 10 per cent charge plus a $3 handling charge for each month of the loan, up to no more than two months.

In addition to this, lenders also could collect $3.50 per month up to four months on loans between $35 and $70 and $4 per month for up to six months on loans from $70 to $100.

The over - $100 clause sets these rates per year $10; $19 upto $100; $16 from 100 to 200; 13 This is sealed tothe rate of $7 per $100 on loans between $1,000 end $1,500.

Rep. Joe Cannon of Mexia called the House - passed bill "a Robin Hood in reverse bill -- it robs the poor and gives it to the rich".

A work - out on the measure - which carries 19 Senate amendments and 23 by the House -- is expected in a Senate - House conference committee, but it won't take long if Gov. John Connally and speaker Byron Tunnell have their way. Both want a loan bill passed this session and neither wants an extended -- or a special session.

COLLEGE BILLS

Governor Connally, Speaker Tunnell and Lt. Gov. Preston Smith all are anxious to see the Pan American and San Angelo college bills passed. Bills finally were pulled out of the House State Affairs Committee, chaired by reluctant Rep. John Allen of Longview.

Allen threatened to resign over the pressure (committeemen kept him from doing so) because he couldn't see the money in sight to support the 20 colleges already in the state family.

NO TUITION HIKE IN SIGHT

Dallas Reps. Ben Atwell and Dick Morgan's colledge tuitoin increase bills may never come out of the House Tax and Revenue Committee. This, even though Atwell is chairman and Morgan is a member of the committee.

Atwell proposed a doubling of state college tuition, as endorsed by the Commission on Higher Education. Morgan offered a compromise of a 50 - per - cent increase.

But word had already come "From above" that there will be no tuition hike this year. That virtually ended it.

NO MONUMENT FOR THE 49TH

A Senate resolution to place a monument honoring the 49th Armored Division of the Texas National al Guard on the State Capital grounds was all but killed by the House State Affairs Committee, after Alpine Rep. Gene Hendryx called it "a disgrace to every veteran who ever served overseas in every war that Texas ever participated in."

The former Marine said, "The greatest battle this organization ever fought was the battle of the canteen at Fort Polk, Louisiana."

Seguin Rep. John Traeger defended the 49th, but the resolution was defeated by a vote of eight to seven.

However, a spark of life remains since Rep. Ben Atwell used a device by which the resolution may be called up for another vote.

RAILROAD COMMISSION CHANGE PROPOSED

A plan to take the railroads and trucks away from the Railroad Commission has been proposed by Rep. Henry Grover of Houston, who told the House:

"Recent development indicates that the Railroad Commission is overworked, and has more to do than it can handle."

Grover inferred that these indications are the slant - hole oil well scandals and the conflict - of-interest resignation of former Commissioner William J. Murray Jr.

Grover introduced H. B. 1041, to ease some of the workloan by removing the commission's authority over the transportation industry, and leaving it with just oil and gas regulatory authority.

The "Texas Commerce Commission", to regulate railroads, bus lines, truck lines, and so forth, would be made up of three $15,000 a year - commissioners.

Railroad Commission was set up in 1891 to regulate the railroads. But authority over oil and gas, since 1917, has caused most of its time and attention to turn in that direction.

CONGRESSIONAL REISTRICTING

A crowd of witnesses from the late Speaker Sam Rayburn's 4th Congressional district is due to oppose the Congressional redistricting bill which would abolish the old 4th and relocate it in south Texas.

Sen. Ralph Hall of Rockwall succeeded in delaying Senate committee action on the measure to May 7, so the opponents can come to Austin.

House passed the bill to the Senate, over protests from Rep. Don Hefton of Sherman. Delay on the hearing may put the redistricting proposal, authored by Rep. Ray-ford Price of Frankston, in jeopardy.

Governor Connally has said he saw no need for Congressional redistricting this session. He thought it could be handled in 1965.

Meanwhile, U. S. Congressman Ray Roberts, who now represents the old 4th doesn't seem worried about losing his job. He's looking for a press liaison man for his Washington office.

AT — LARGE ELECTIONS SUGGESTED

Eighty Texas counties, in which two county precincts or more, represent a fraction of the total county vote, would be affected if Rep. Lindsey Rodriguez of Midalgo ever comes to a favorable vote by the public.

Under Rodriguez' plan, if the total number of votes cast in two or more commissioners' precincts amount to less than 20 per cent of the total vote cast in the election of all four commissioners, the commissioners in the small precincts would be required to run on a countywide - at - large basis.

NEW PUBLICATIONS

Two recently realeased Texas Agricultural Extension Service publications, L-265, "Test Your Soil for Profits" and 1963 "Texas Guide for Controlling Insects on Ornamental Plants" are available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

SQUIRREL — HUNTING TIP

No matter how quiet you are, squirrels will scamper when they glimpse a pale face turned toward the sky.

To make your hunt more successful, try coating your face with a strong solution of henna.

Henna gives a nut brown tint to pale flesh that blends well with the fall woods. Also it is easy to remove after the hunt is over.

Coat your hands too unless you'll be wearing gloves.

LAMB CROP

This year's early lamb crop in Texas is one percent smaller than that of 1962, reports Ed Uvacek, extension livestock marketing specialist. He looks for spring lamb prices to be slightly higher than those of a year ago but does not expect them to hold at the high level as long as they did in the previous year.

Corvair Monza Club Coupe

Who needs muscles?

Do you know how easy it is to take a corner with a Corvair or park one? Turn this newspaper sideways and it will give you a pretty good idea. The wheel handles just about that easily.

The Corvair's engine is in the rear, for not only greater traction, but more balanced weight distribution. And that's what makes the steering so completely effortless.

The engine is air cooled, too. No radiator. No water or antifreeze. No boiling over or freezing up to worry about. It takes the weather and the terrain as it comes.

Alcoa To Match Employees Gifts

PITTSBURGH, Pa. – The Alcoa Foundation expanded its support of education today by announcing it will match gifts by Alcoa employees to institutions of higher learning.

Foundation Chairman Roy A. Hunt said the employee may choose any private or public four-year college or university, or any graduate school in the United States. The Foundation will duplicate total gifts up to $1,000 a year by any employee.

Hunt, former president of Aluminum Company of America, explained: "Under the plan approved by the Foundation, a donor sends his gift of not less than $25 to the school of his choice. The appropriate officer at the college or university certifies the contribution and notifies the Foundation, which then gives the school an equal amount.

"Schools participating in the plan must have regional or professional accreditation."

Colleges are enthusiastic about the arrangement, Mr. Hunt said, because it encourages alumni and others to give. A number of firms in the United States have similar plans.

Founded in 1952, the Alcoa Foundation uses its net income exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary and educational purposes.
